

EARNING MODELS FOR RDI ACTORS

1. Hourly rate: expert participates in the development by demand, estimation of hours needed case by case, company calls when needed (for example consulting, support, renting a facility – rules & conditions & availability)

2. Offer-based project service describing the content, timetable and costs of expert work (for example lab & expert service)

3. Fixed price for a service/product, transaction fee for predefined result or content, work, predefined capacity (for example student training in a company, training, tests, renting a facility)

4. Yearly subscription: predefined activities/outcomes/products/time allocation on fixed price

5. Invitation: Project-based price and benefits: participation in the predefined RDI projects

6. Partnership: Collaboration contract with research and business partners for several years (for example research program), mutual change of knowledge/resources; fee or freemium model